DETAILED ACTION

Art Rejections:

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) do not apply to the examination of this application as the application being examined was not (1) filed on or after November 29, 2000, or (2) voluntarily published under 35 U.S.C. 122(b). Therefore, this application is examined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

2. Claims 1-10, 16-25 and 31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Law, U.S. pat. No. 6,330,602.

Law discloses a dynamic load balancing DNS server comprising:

- a) a plurality of clients (30, fig. 3) and a plurality of servers (32, 34, 36, fig. 3) connected to the network,
- b) a DNS server comprising instructions for performing:

Art Unit: 2154

i) receiving an initial client request for an address of one of the servers,

ii) selecting a server based on status (see col 5, lines 11-13),

iii) sending the selected server address to the client,

iv) receiving subsequent request for a server address,

v) sending the selected server address to the client (see col 5, lines 14-15),

vi) selecting a new server if the previously selected server is not operational (see col 5, lines 19-41 and col 10, lines 15-33).

It is noted that the server can be identified by site name, pool name or group name (see col 2, lines 10-25).

Allowable Subject Matter:

3. Claims 11-15, 26-30 and 32-33 are allowed over prior art of record.

Conclusion:

4. The references cited by the examiner on PTO-892 but not relied upon are considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
